

Ishita Saklani

MBA Class of 2027, ICFAI Business School (IBS), Hyderabad

Ishita is a second-year MBA student at IBS Hyderabad, known for her active leadership and commitment to social causes. She currently serves as the Internal SPOC (Single Point of Contact) for the Club Aaina and Centre for Women Development (CWD), the institute's official social awareness and women development club dedicated to social awareness, women development, and LGBTQ+ inclusion. In these roles, she actively contributes to conceptualizing, coordinating, and executing initiatives that promote gender equity, inclusivity, awareness, and community engagement across the campus.

She also serves as the Marketing Head of Niramaya Tarang, The Anti-Narcotics Cell of IFHE Hyderabad, where she plans and executes promotional campaigns, develops outreach strategies, and drives awareness initiatives focused on drug abuse prevention, student well-being, and responsible decision-making.

Balancing academics with multiple responsibilities, Ishita approaches every role with enthusiasm, creativity, and a strong sense of purpose. Through her dedication to social impact and community engagement, she continues to contribute meaningfully to the IBS community.
