

Yellapragada Sreekeerthi

MBA Class of 2027, ICFAI Business School (IBS), Hyderabad

Sreekeerthi is a second-year MBA student at IBS Hyderabad, known for her active leadership and commitment to social causes. She currently serves as the CWD Point of Contact (POC) and Digital POC for the Centre for Women Development (CWD) and Club Aaina, the institute's official social awareness and women development club dedicated to social awareness, women development, and LGBTQ+ inclusion. In these roles, she actively contributes to conceptualizing, coordinating, and executing initiatives that promote gender equity, inclusivity, awareness, and community engagement across the campus. She also leads the club's digital outreach by managing its social media presence, developing creative content, and amplify the impact of its initiatives.

She also serves as the Editorial Head of Niramaya Tarang, The Anti-Narcotics Cell of IFHE Hyderabad, where she is responsible for developing awareness content, managing editorial communications, and supporting campaigns focused on drug abuse prevention, student well-being, and responsible decision-making.

In addition to her club responsibilities, she represents the student community as a Member of the Anti-Ragging Committee and the Internal Complaints Committee at IFHE, contributing to the promotion of a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment.

Balancing academics with diverse leadership responsibilities, Sreekeerthi brings passion, dedication, and a strong sense of purpose to every role she undertakes. Her commitment to fostering awareness, inclusivity, and student engagement makes her a valued leader within the IBS community.
