Inaugural ceremony

Guests

Dr. Farzana, Head of Programs of Operations Peacemaker of My Choice Foundation,
Ms. Pamela Satpathy, IAS,
Hon'ble Sri Justice G. Chandraiah

The ICFAI Law School in Hyderabad hosted a dynamic two-day National Conference focused on the theme "Elevating Equality: Exploring the Intersection of Gender and Human Rights Law."

The primary objective of the conference was to provide a platform for the exchange of ideas, fostering a deeper understanding of gender issues, and contributing to the advancement of a more inclusive and just society, all while delving into the intricate relationship between Gender and Human Rights Law.

The conference kicked off with a warm welcome address from Prof. L. S. Ganesh, Vice Chancellor of IFHE, Hyderabad.

The inaugural ceremony included the introduction of conference themes by Prof. Y. Pratap Reddy, Dean of ICFAI Law School, IFHE, Hyderabad. Distinguished guests such as Dr. Farzana and Ms. Pamela Satpathy, along with Chief Guest Hon'ble Sri Justice G. Chandraiah, delivered insightful speeches emphasizing the importance of understanding gender issues, exploring the nexus between gender and human rights law, and advocating for a more equitable society. Through the lens of gender studies, the conference shed light on the multifaceted nature of discrimination, fostering a deeper understanding of power dynamics and social justice.

Following the inaugural ceremony, technical sessions commenced, featuring presentations by students, researchers, academics, legal professionals, and practitioners, covering a wide range of topics. These sessions were marked by lively discussions and active participation from both the audience and moderators.

Valedictory ceremony

Ms. Devidutta Dash, Founder and CEO of Lemmebe foundation,
Ms. Vyjayanti Vasanta Mogli, founder of Telangana Transgender Samiti,
Hon'ble Sri Justice M. S. K Jaiswal

The conference concluded with a vibrant valedictory ceremony, highlighted by a comprehensive Conference Report presented by Prof. Iti Vyas of ICFAI Law School, summarizing the key events and discussions.

Hon'ble Sri Justice M. S. K Jaiswal, the Chief Guest, shared insightful reflections to advance the cause of gender justice and spark further dialogue on pertinent issues at the intersection of Gender and Law.

The Guests of Honor, including Ms. Devidutta Dash, Founder and CEO, also contributed to the enriching discourse.
