

2026 REPUBLIC DAY REPORT

ASTITVA CLUB

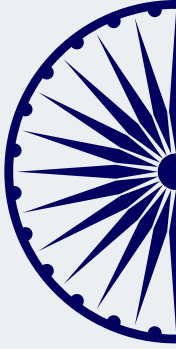

About the Event -

Date: 26 January 2026

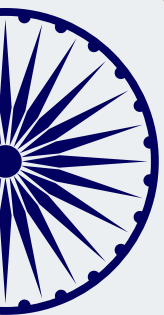

Occasion: Republic Day

Organised by: Samavesh Club

Location: IBS Academic Block

On the occasion of Republic Day, Samavesh Club took the initiative to host a commemorative cultural gathering celebrating the spirit of unity and patriotism. To elevate the celebrations, Samavesh extended a special invitation to Astitva – The Official Music Club of ICFAI TECH, whose band brought the event to life with a powerful and engaging musical performance. The collaboration between Samavesh and Astitva created an atmosphere of pride, harmony, and youthful energy, making the celebration both meaningful and memorable.

The Performance and the Spirit

The performers displayed exceptional coordination and musical harmony, each contributing uniquely to the overall impact of the performance. The two singers captivated the audience with their powerful vocals and expressive delivery, setting an inspiring tone throughout the programme. The drummer provided a strong rhythmic foundation, driving the performance with energy and precision, while the bassist added depth and balance to the compositions

The keyboardist enriched the performance with melodious layers and seamless transitions. Together, the team demonstrated professionalism, unity, and artistic excellence, making the performance both compelling and memorable.

The Audience response

The performance received an overwhelmingly positive response from the audience, which included respected faculty members, the Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar, and a large gathering of students. Their attentive presence and enthusiastic applause reflected deep appreciation for the performers' efforts. The encouraging response from both the academic leadership and the student community created an atmosphere of collective pride and celebration, further elevating the significance of the event and reinforcing the spirit of unity that defined the occasion.

A Special Thanks

Special appreciation and sincere gratitude are extended to Samavesh Club for the successful organisation and gracious hosting of the Republic Day programme. The club's meticulous planning, disciplined coordination, and commitment to upholding the spirit of the occasion were evident throughout the event. By extending a formal invitation to Astitva – the Music Club and providing a well-structured platform for artistic expression, Samavesh significantly contributed to the cultural and patriotic essence of the celebration. Their efforts played a pivotal role in ensuring the smooth execution of the programme and in creating a dignified, engaging, and memorable experience for all dignitaries, faculty members, students, and participants present.

Conclusion

In conclusion, the Republic Day celebration stood as a dignified and memorable event that successfully reflected the values of unity, patriotism, and cultural harmony. The collaborative efforts of Samavesh Club and the inspiring performance by Astitva created a meaningful experience for all present, leaving a lasting impression and reinforcing the spirit of national pride.
