IFHE HYDERABAD

ICFAI SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES (ISoSS)

YES CLUB

EVENT REPORT - Out of Context

Date: 3rd November 2026

Venue: Classroom 22 (CR 22)

Time: 12:30 PM – 2:00 PM

Organised by: YES Club

In collaboration with: Verba Viva

1. Introduction

On 3rd November 2026, YES Club, in collaboration with Verba Viva, organised an interactive event titled "OUT OF CONTEXT" at Classroom 22 (CR 22), from 12:30 PM to 2:00 PM. Centred around popular culture, including movies, television series, celebrities, and iconic dialogues, the event provided students with an engaging platform to test their pop-culture knowledge, quick thinking, and teamwork through a series of interactive challenges.

The primary objective of the event was to foster unity and encourage interaction among students from different schools through collaborative participation and friendly competition. By incorporating entertainment-based activities, the event sought to create an inclusive and enjoyable environment that promoted social engagement, teamwork, and active student involvement.

2. Event Highlights

2.1 Event Overview

The event brought together approximately 50 participants for an engaging and competitive experience. The activities revolved around identifying popular references, recognising iconic quotes, and interpreting clues related to movies, television series, celebrities, and contemporary pop culture.

The competition was structured into two rounds, each designed to challenge participants' recall, observation, interpretation, and collaborative problem-solving abilities.

2.2 Round 1 – Who Said That?

The first round, titled "Who Said That?", focused on identifying the individuals behind iconic quotes and dialogues. Participants were presented with well-known statements and references and were required to identify the individuals who originally said them.

The round tested participants' familiarity with popular personalities, movies, television series, and other elements of popular culture. It encouraged quick recall, effective communication, and active collaboration among team members, creating an atmosphere of enthusiasm and friendly competition.

2.3 Round 2 – Decode the Drama

The second round, titled "Decode the Drama," introduced a creative challenge in which participants interpreted cryptic clues and decoded emojis to identify different pop-culture references.

The round involved connecting visual hints with familiar movies, television series, celebrities, and entertainment references. It encouraged participants to think creatively, interpret clues, and communicate effectively with their teammates.

Together, the two rounds offered a combination of knowledge-based and creative challenges, making the event an interactive and enjoyable experience for all participants.

2.4 Winners and Recognition

The competition recognised the teams that secured the top three positions, celebrating their performance, teamwork, and participation.

First Place – Team A.I.B

- Arash
- Nafees
- Santhoshi

Second Place – Team Naam me kya likha hai?

- Jahnavi
- Kritika
- Tejitha

Third Place – Team Kuchu Puchu Gang

- Maham Rana
- Vedanti

2.5 Participation and Collaboration

With approximately 50 participants, the event provided students with an opportunity to interact beyond their respective academic groups and establish connections through shared interests. The team-based activities encouraged cooperation, communication, and healthy competition.

The collaboration between YES Club and Verba Viva demonstrated the value of inter-club initiatives in creating diverse opportunities for student engagement. By bringing together students through an informal yet structured platform, the event contributed to strengthening campus interaction and fostering a greater sense of community.

3. Conclusion and Acknowledgements

OUT OF CONTEXT concluded on a positive note, successfully providing participants with an opportunity to engage in recreational activities while taking part in challenges centred around popular culture. The two rounds brought together entertainment, creativity, quick thinking, and teamwork, contributing to the broader objective of fostering unity and interaction among students from different schools.

The event also highlighted the importance of student-led initiatives and collaborative extracurricular activities in enriching campus life and providing students with opportunities to develop interpersonal skills, build connections, and participate beyond the classroom.

YES Club extends its sincere gratitude to Dr. Pooja Choudhary and Dr. Pavana Jyothi, for their continued guidance, encouragement, and support in facilitating student initiatives. Their involvement and institutional support play an important role in creating an environment where students are encouraged to take initiative, organise meaningful activities, and actively contribute to campus life.

Special appreciation is also extended to Dr. Smitha, Club Coordinator of Verba Viva, for her valuable guidance, cooperation, and support in facilitating the collaboration between the two clubs and ensuring the smooth conduct of the event.

YES Club also acknowledges the efforts of the Verba Viva organising team, the respective club members, and all participating students. Their collective contributions, enthusiasm, and cooperation were instrumental in making OUT OF CONTEXT a successful and memorable event.