The Legal Aid Society of ICFAI Law School, IFHE, organized a street play in Mokila Village to raise awareness about filing a First Information Report (FIR) under the newly enacted "Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023". The event took place on Friday.

The street play, performed by ICFAI Law School students, focused on educating the public about the process of filing an FIR, highlighting the circumstances under which one can lodge a complaint under the new legal framework. The dramatization effectively conveyed the key elements of the law, including the provision for filing an electronic FIR (e-FIR) through electronic communication channels.

The event saw active participation from the local community, including the Mokila Police Station Sub-Inspector, the village sarpanch, faculty members from ICFAI Law School, and members of the Legal Aid Society. The initiative was aimed at spreading legal awareness and empowering the residents of Mokila Village with essential information on how to seek legal recourse under the "Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023".
