

Name: Ar. Saleem A. Qureshi

Designation: Visiting Faculty, ICFAI School of Architecture, IFHE

Teaching Areas: Architectural Design, Interior Design, Project Management, Construction Management

Areas of Interest: Architectural Design, Project Management, Construction Management, Housing and Residential Design

Education:

Post-Graduation: MBA in Construction / Project Management, Alameda University, US (2002)

Graduation: Bachelor of Architecture, Osmania University (1975)

Professional Experience:

Academics: Visiting Faculty at Raffles Millennium International and KL University teaching Architecture and Interior Design subjects.

Industry / Professional: Since 1975; Founder and Principal Architect at Designer's Group, Hyderabad, providing architectural and engineering consultancy. Worked extensively in India, Saudi Arabia, Canada, and the Middle East on projects including residential developments, resorts, educational institutions, mosques, and large-scale government and defense infrastructure projects.

Notable Projects:

Royal Terminal at Riyadh Air Base, Naval Base at Jubail (in collaboration with British Aerospace), and Miles Bronson Residential School, Guwahati.