

Name: Shraddha D. Bahirat

Designation: Assistant Professor, ICFAI School of Architecture, IFHE

Teaching areas: Research methodology, Urban Design, Architectural Design, Building services

Research interests:

Urban Design, neighbourhood design, human behaviour and built environment

Education:

PhD: IIT Kharagpur, (2023)

Post-Graduation: Masters in Architecture (Urban Design), SPA Bhopal, (Class 2014)

Graduation: Bachelors in Architecture, VNIT Nagpur, (Class 2012)

Selected Publications:

1. Bahirat, S., & Basu, S. (2017). Understanding Gated Communities of India and their impact on the Neighbourhood Cohesion with special focus on digital technology as a means of communication. Proceeding of ISOCARP-OAPA/ 53rd ISOCARP Congress. Portland, USA: ISOCARP-OAPA. ISBN: 978-94-90354-51-0.
https://isocarp.org/app/uploads/2017/12/Proceedings\_V14\_2017\_12\_21.pdf
2. Bahirat, S., & Basu, S. (3rd to 5th February, 2017). Traditional Gated Communities and neighbourhoods in India- A comparative analysis of design principles and related factors and their significance in modern context. International Conference on Sustainable Built Environment 2017. Roorkee: Department of Architecture and Planning, Indian Institute of Technology Roorkee.